Emmaus Citizenship Resource 2b

I went into the RAF at 17 and I was there for about 11 years. Institutionalised, you get used to it, it's hard to come back out into civilian lifeone day you're in, the next day you're not. went into a couple of jobs, then worked in a hotel for 13 years, that's when the drinking got bad...

My wife and children were killed in a road accident...

Before that I had my own house where I lived with my partner. I became homeless after the relationship broke up...

After my mum died when I was 18 I never really got my shit together... Then one day I found myself homeless...

I had nowhere to stay. I started a relationship and I lived with my boyfriend for a while, but it went wrong. I found myself on the streets. I ended up homeless because I had no one to support me...

I started taking days off, then I couldn't pay the bills. My fiancée and I split up and I went to the council because I was homeless...

Since my family split up when I was 7, I drifted into bad company, stealing and drugs, ending up in care homes, hostels and prisons...
