How I became homeless.....

I split up from my wife and eventually ended up homeless....

I lost my job and so lost my accommodation and ended up drinking. A downward spiral...

My girlfriend left me and I started drinking heavily....

I had a bit of a heroin problem....

The rent stopped getting paid and I lost my place. I was going round sleeping on friends' floors...

I was company director for two construction companies..... they both went bust. I went completely over the top with the alcohol, became an alcoholic, and ended up getting divorced..... life fell apart completely...

I became homeless because my step dad made my mum choose between him and me...

....because of my drink problem, I left my business, my home and most importantly my wife and children...
