

We will offer:

Safe and stable accommodation that is well maintained.

Food, clothing, bedding, towels and essential toiletries.

A regular allowance, help to set-up a bank account (if needed), and opportunities to save for the future.

Support to register with a GP and dentist, and to access other health and wellbeing agencies / services you may need.

Personalised support, in line with your needs, issues, goals and aspirations.

The opportunity to be part of a community, that works, lives and socialises together in a positive and supportive environment for the good of all.

Clear policies and expectations within your community, which are consistently applied.

Meaningful work in a social enterprise. Here, you will work with others, to contribute to the success and sustainability of your community.

Training appropriate to your work, the right knowledge and equipment to carry out your role, and a record of your achievements.

Help to access other training for your personal development and learning, and an environment that is supportive and encouraging.

Encouragement to pursue your own hobbies and interests, and help to achieve your personal aspirations and goals.

The chance to take part in acts of solidarity. This means working to help someone less fortunate than yourself and is a core part of our ethos.

Help to access mainstream housing and employment, supporting as much as possible, when or if you want to move on.

Support to access work experience and make connections with employers and recruiters if you are seeking employment.

I will strive to:

Respect the accommodation, keeping it clean, tidy and looked after, participating in the upkeep of my community.

Consider others, and not take more than my fair share of resources.

Sign off employment related benefits, and not borrow money from other companions.

Take responsibility for making and keeping my medical appointments and be open and honest with staff about my health and wellbeing.

Engage with the support offered, taking responsibility and action to meet my own needs and aspirations.

Take an active part in all aspects of community life, abiding by the rules of my community and upholding the aims and values of Emmaus.

Take responsibility for my own actions and understand there are consequences to my behaviours.

Contribute to the charity, working up to 40 hours a week to the best of my ability, and be a willing and supportive member of the team.

Take part in required training, enabling me to perform my work safely and to the required standards.

Take ownership of my own personal development and learning, and explore options available to me.

Take time to pursue my own hobbies and interests and work towards my own goals and aspirations.

Demonstrate solidarity and support for those in need, actively participating in solidarity projects both within and outside of my community.

Work with staff to prepare myself for living and working outside of the community, if this is my goal.

Present myself to customers, organisations and corporate partners in an appropriate manner, leaving a positive impression of Emmaus.
